SALARY FOR SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES AND SUPERVISORS

We have received notification from the Judicial Council of California that Superior Court Judges' salaries were increased by $1,536 (1.03%) per year retroactive to February 1, 2006. This action will result in an annual salary of $150,696 for a Superior Court Judge and for each Supervisor.

This increase is based on the Government Code Section 68203 which requires that judges' pay be increased based on the average increase received by state employees. While a small number of state bargaining units have completed negotiations during this current fiscal year, most of the larger units are not expected to have signed agreements until after July 1, 2006. When the salary increases occurring in fiscal 2005-06 are averaged over the entire state employee population, including the employees who have not yet received an adjustment, the average increase equals 1.03 percent as of February 1, 2006. Therefore, Judges and Supervisors will receive a 1.03 percent adjustment retroactive to February 1, 2006.

The Auditor-Controller advises the new salary and retroactive earnings will be reflected on the June 30, 2006 payroll. Details of the retroactive payments for February through May 2006 will be seen on the July 14, 2006 payroll.
